Our holidays are always filled with family, friends, food, and fuel. And, lots of laughter.

It will be the 9th Christmas since my mom and co-founder, passed away. Not a day goes by that I don't think of her and miss all the times we spent in the kitchen.

In honor and memory of my mom, I am sharing a few of our favorite family recipes.

We hope you enjoy the recipes and I know mom is thrilled these are being shared.

Happy holidays to all!

Cheers, Sally

Jammin' Eggs Benedict - OMG! A must make

This was inspired by a friends modification from the Bohemian Cafe, in Chesapeake City, MD. We added Jammin" Salmon to top it off. Decadent. The best brunch ever. Serves 4

Hollandaise Sauce

1 stick butter melted 2 egg yolks 1 tablespoon lemon juice pinch of cayenne pepper

Eggs Benedict

Two Poached eggs for every person (8) 2 toasted and buttered English muffin halves for each person Smoked salmon – one package – use a small piece for each English muffin 1 cup of cooked Dungeness or Snow crab

Directions

In small mixing bowl, beat egg yolks on medium speed until they are lemon yellow, reduce speed to low and slowly drizzle in melted butter. When half the butter has been drizzled in, squeeze lemon juice and cayenne pepper into remaining butter and drizzle into egg mixture. Set aside.

Assemble

Take each toasted and buttered English muffin and place a piece of smoked salmon on it. Add a poached egg on top of the salmon. Then divided the cooked crab into 8 equal portions and place the crab meat on top of the poached eggs. Drizzle with hollandaise sauce and shake on Jammin" Salmon.

Serve with Roasted Asparagus and fresh fruit. Bloody Mary's are also a great compliment and if you have Feisty Fish Rub you can rim the glass with Feisty Fish.

- 3. Coat the roast with olive oil, then rub 3-4 tbsp. of Black Dog Belly Rub onto the roast. Make sure the roast is completely coated with the rub. Use more Belly Rub if needed.
- 4. Place roast in roasting pan and put on the middle rack of the oven.
- 5. Roast at 450° for 15 minutes and then turn heat down to 350° and cook for another 30 to 45 minutes or until meat thermometer reads 130° or medium rare. DO NOT overcook!
- 6. Let the roast sit before slicing for at least 10 minutes.
- 7. Slice very thin (try a little taste yourself). Then pat yourself on the back.

Roasted Root Vegetables - dollar stretcher that guests will rave about

A delicious, nutritious, and easy side that everyone loves. You can adjust the number of potatoes to the crowd. These are also wonderful as leftovers, so more is better than less. Don't remove the skin, that's where all the good stuff is.

Ingredients

Potatoes - I use a combination of fingerling, Yukon gold, the purple ones, and small red skinswhatever is around the house. Just don't use Idaho or Russet, they are a bit too powdery for this recipe.

Roots - Our ratio for a group of 8: 3 pounds of a combination of asparagus and celery, etc., any quantity of parsnips, carrots, canned small whole beets, onions, any root veggie is good. Olive oil

2 to 3 tbsp. Awesome Antler Rub™

Optional: extra dried rosemary and fresh ground black pepper to taste if you like.

Instructions

  - 4. Cut potatoes into bite-size chunks and place in a roasting pan coated with cooking spray for easy cleanup.
  - 5. Coat potatoes with olive oil and sprinkle 2 tablespoons of Awesome Antler Rub over the potatoes. If you like them a bit more peppery and savory then you can add a little more fresh ground pepper and dried rosemary. I'm a garlic fan so I always add a little more granulated garlic too.
  - 6. Mix well and put in oven on middle rack.
  - 7. Roast at 450° for 20 minutes, stirring occasionally until browned and a little crusty.

3. (Roots)

Bundles of Love – easy and delicious

This recipe looks hard but it's quite simple. Modified from a Cooking Light recipe, you'll get rave reviews.

Ingredients

4 qt. water

3 (8-oz.) pkg. fresh haricots verts (French green beans)

Cooking spray

3 1/2 cups stemmed and thinly sliced fresh mushrooms (about 4 oz.) – we used the white button

7 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil, divided

1 teaspoon Gallopin Gourmet Shake

4 teaspoons fresh lemon juice

5 prosciutto slices (about 2 oz. total), cut in half lengthwise

Instructions

Step 1

Preheat oven to 450°F. Bring 4 quarts water to a boil in a large Dutch oven over mediumhigh. Add green beans, and cook until crisp-tender, about 4 to 5 minutes. Drain beans, and plunge into a large bowl filled with ice water to stop the cooking process. Drain beans, and dry thoroughly with paper towels.

Step 2

Line a rimmed baking sheet with aluminum foil; lightly coat with cooking spray. Toss together mushrooms, 3 tablespoons oil, 1/8 teaspoon salt, and 1/8 teaspoon pepper in a bowl; arrange evenly on prepared baking sheet. Roast at 450°F until mushrooms are deep brown and crisped, 12 to 15 minutes, stirring halfway through. Transfer mushrooms to a bowl; set baking sheet aside.

Step 3

Whisk together lemon juice, remaining 1/4 cup oil, remaining 5/8 teaspoon salt, and remaining 3/8 teaspoon pepper in a large bowl until blended. Add beans; toss to coat. Gather beans into 10 bundles of about 20 beans each. Place 1 bundle at the end of 1 prosciutto piece; roll up lengthwise. Repeat with remaining 9 bundles and remaining 9 prosciutto pieces.

Arrange assembled bundles, seam side down, on reserved baking sheet. Bake at 450°F until beans are warmed and prosciutto begins to brown, 5 to 7 minutes. Transfer green bean bundles to a platter; sprinkle with roasted mushrooms.
